

HUOK

HEIDELBERG UNIVERSITY OFFICE KYOTO

UNIVERSITÄT HEIDELBERG
ZUKUNFT
SEIT 1386

Dr. Lyle De Souza

Researcher at the Institute for Research in Humanities, Kyoto University

Dr. Lyle De Souza, a former JSPS International Research Fellow (host: Professor Yasuko Takezawa), is a researcher at the Institute for Research in Humanities, Kyoto University. His research interests include Nikkei literature and diaspora cultural identity. His current research project titled “The Literature of the Japanese Diaspora: Identity Beyond Japan” examines cultural identity in literature written by people of Japanese descent in countries across the world. Dr. De Souza was an Associate Lecturer at Birkbeck, University of London (where he also completed his Ph.D. in Japanese Studies), lecturing undergraduate and master’s students as part of Birkbeck’s Japanese Studies programme.

<https://kyoto-u.academia.edu/LyleDeSouza>